

- version: print the version string

Syntax: version

version prints out the information about version number and build date and time (not current date, time) displayed when XSPEC is started.